

What can I do at the museum to discover our culture?

MUSEUMS

The museum provides people with an engaging and free learning environment. Learning is not limited to books or school. Today, museums form an important part of the “wallless classroom” by collaborating with the school and society.

OUR UNWALLED
CLASSROOMS
MUSEUMS

With Ceramics and Play Dough, we can make copies of the objects in the museum by adding creativity.

We can Brainstorm about museum rules in a democratic educational setting.

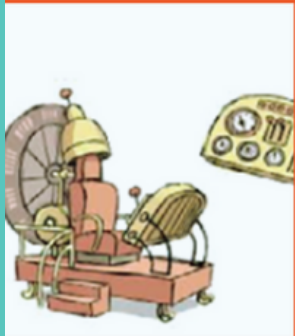

We can make posters and brochures with paints

We can examine the objects in the museum.

We can listen to stories, legends and create our own stories. We can then discuss our stories and act our stories with our friends.

With the Time Capsule event, we can explore the exchange of items. Yesterday-Today-Tomorrow

We can do research in the museum.

We can build our own Museum Collection with creative ideas.
